

Freedom, Privacy & Rights

Always operating within legal boundaries, Eyes & Ears on Kentucky holds personal liberties in highest esteem.

The intent is improving vigilance and alertness by responsible citizens willing to report in a rational manner any suspicious activity or items potentially threatening community safety and security.

Balancing protection of individuals and properties with rights of others is achievable through awareness, conscientious reporting to officials and respect for the Constitutional rights of others.

The safety and security of the Commonwealth cannot be achieved apart from reliance upon Almighty God as set forth in the public speeches and proclamations of American Presidents, including Abraham Lincoln's historic March, 30, 1863, Proclamation urging Americans to pray and fast during one of the most dangerous hours in American history, and the text of President John F. Kennedy's Nov. 22, 1963 national security speech which concluded: "For as was written long ago, 'Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.'" — Kentucky Revised Statute 39A.285(3).
